GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 101. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be expended for payments under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract for work, where cost estimates exceed $25,000, to be performed within the United States, except Alaska, without the specific approval in writing of the Secretary of Defense setting forth the reasons therefor.

SEC. 102. Funds herein appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction shall be available for hire of passenger motor vehicles.

SEC. 103. Funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction may be used for advances to the Federal Highway Administration, Department of Transportation, for the construction of access roads as authorized by section 210 of title 23, United States Code, when projects authorized therein are certified as important to the national defense by the Secretary of Defense.

SEC. 104. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used to begin construction of new bases inside the continental United States for which specific appropriations have not been made.

SEC. 105. No part of the funds provided in this Act shall be used for purchase of land or land easements in excess of 100 per centum of the value as determined by the Corps of Engineers or the Naval Facilities Engineering Command, except (a) where there is a determination of value by a Federal court, or (b) purchases negotiated by the Attorney General or his designee, or (c) where the estimated value is less than $25,000, or (d) as otherwise determined by the Secretary of Defense to be in the public interest.

SEC. 106. None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used to (1) acquire land, (2) provide for site preparation, or (3) install utilities for any family housing, except housing for which funds have been made available in annual military construction appropriation Acts.

SEC. 107. None of the funds appropriated in this Act for minor construction may be used to transfer or relocate any activity from one base or installation to another, without prior notification to the Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 108. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the procurement of steel for any construction project or activity for which American steel producers, fabricators, and manufacturers have been denied the opportunity to compete for such steel procurement.

SEC. 109. None of the funds available to the Department of Defense for military construction or family housing during the current fiscal year may be used to pay real property taxes in any foreign nation.

SEC. 110. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used to initiate a new installation overseas without prior notification to the Committees on Appropriations.

SEC. 111. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be obligated for architect and engineer contracts estimated by the Government to exceed $500,000 for projects to be accomplished in Japan or in any NATO member country, unless such contracts are awarded to United States firms or United States firms in joint venture with host nation firms.

SEC. 112. None of the funds appropriated in this Act for military construction in the United States territories and possessions in the Pacific and on Kwajalein Island may be used to award any contract estimated by the Government to exceed $1,000,000 to a foreign contractor: Provided, That this section shall not be applicable to contract awards for which the lowest responsive and responsible bid of a United States contractor exceeds the lowest responsive and responsible bid of a foreign contractor by greater than 20 per centum.

SEC. 113. The Secretary of Defense is to inform the Committees on Appropriations and the Committees on Armed Services of the plans and scope of any proposed military exercise involving United States personnel thirty days prior to its occurring, if amounts expended for construction, either temporary or permanent, are anticipated to exceed $100,000.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 114. Unexpended balances in the Military Family Housing Management Account established pursuant to section 2831 of title 10, United States Code, as well as any additional amounts which would otherwise be transferred to the Military Family Housing

Management Account during fiscal year 1991, shall be transferred to the appropriations for Family Housing provided in this Act, as determined by the Secretary of Defense, based on the sources from which the funds were derived, and shall be available for the same purposes, and for the same time period, as the appropriation to which they have been transferred.

SEC. 115. Not more than 20 per centum of the appropriations in this Act which are limited for obligation during the current fiscal year shall be obligated during the last two months of the fiscal year.

(TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

SEC. 116. Funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for construction in prior years are hereby made available for construction authorized for each such military department by the authorizations enacted into law during the second session of the One Hundred First Congress.

Reports.

SEC. 117. The Secretary of Defense is to provide the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives with a report by February 15, 1991, containing details of the specific actions proposed to be taken by the Department of Defense during fiscal year 1991 to encourage other member nations of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Japan to assume a greater share of the common defense burden of such nations and the United States.

SEC. 118. For military construction or family housing projects that are being completed with funds otherwise expired or lapsed for obligation, expired or lapsed funds may be used to pay the cost of associated supervision, inspection, overhead, engineering and design on those projects and on subsequent claims, if any.

note.

SEC. 119. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any funds appropriated to a military department or defense agency for the construction of military projects may be obligated for a military construction project or contract, or for any portion of such a project or contract, at any time before the end of the fourth fiscal year after the fiscal year for which funds for such project were appropriated if the funds obligated for such project (1) are obligated from funds available for military construction projects, and (2) do not exceed the amount appropriated for such project, plus any amount by which the cost of such project is increased pursuant to law.

SEC. 120. Of the funds appropriated in this Act for Operations and maintenance of Family Housing, no more than $16,000,000 may be obligated for contract cleaning of family housing units.

SEC. 121. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the design, construction, operation or maintenance of new family housing units in the Republic of Korea in connection with any increase in accompanied tours after June 6, 1988.

SEC. 122. None of the funds appropriated in this Act for planning and design activities may be used to initiate design of the Pentagon Annex.

SEC. 123. None of the funds appropriated in this Act, except those necessary to exercise construction management provisions under section 2807 of title 10, United States Code, may be used for study, planning, design, or architect and engineer services related to the relocation of Yongsan Garrison, Korea.

SEC. 124. None of the funds herein or heretofore appropriated for Military Construction and Family Housing are available to fund costs associated with military operations in Panama known as Operation Just Cause, notwithstanding transfer authority contained in section 211 of Public Law 101-302.

SEC. 125. The Congress disapproves the deferrals relating to the Department of Defense as set forth in the message from the Comptroller General transmitted to the Congress on June 28, 1990 (H. Doc. 101-210).

SEC. 126. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of the Army shall transfer, no later than September 30, 1991, and without reimbursement, to the Secretary of the Interior the real property, including improvements thereon, consisting of approximately 7,600 acres of Fort Meade, Maryland, located generally south of Maryland Route 198 extended and the power-line right-of-way, as determined under subsection (d).

Real property acquisition.
Maryland.
Electric power.
Rights-of-way.

(b) The Secretary of the Interior shall administer the property transferred pursuant to subsection (a) consistent with wildlife conservation purposes and shall provide for the continued use of the property by Federal agencies to the extent such agencies are using it on the date of the enactment of this Act, including activities of the Department of Defense that are consistent with the recommendations of the Base Realignment and Closure Commission.

Wildlife.

(c) The Secretary of the Interior may not convey, lease, transfer, declare excess or surplus, or otherwise dispose of any portion of the property transferred pursuant to subsection (a) unless approved by law.

(d) The exact acreage and legal description of the property to be transferred under this section shall be determined by a survey satisfactory to the Director of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service within the Department of the Interior, after consultation with the Department of the Army and appropriate State and local government officials.

SEC. 127. (a) IN GENERAL.—(1) Subject to subsections (b) through (e), the Secretary of the Army may convey to the city of Tacoma, Washington, all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to a parcel of real property, including improvements thereon, located at 3009 North Star Street, Tacoma, Washington, consisting of approximately 6.7 acres.

Real property acquisition.
Washington.

(2) The conveyance under paragraph (1) shall be made in consideration for a 50-year leasehold interest in and to Pier 23, Port of Tacoma, made available by the State of Washington to the Department of the Army.

(b) CONDITIONS OF CONVEYANCE.—The conveyance authorized by subsection (a) shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) The property conveyed shall be used for public purposes.

Public lands.

(2) The Secretary may reserve to the United States (and shall include in the instrument of conveyance) such easements and other interest in the property conveyed pursuant to this section as the Secretary determines necessary or convenient for the operations, activities, and functions of the United States.

(c) REVERSION.—If the Secretary determines at any time that the property conveyed pursuant to this section is not being used for the purposes specified in subsection (b)(1), all right, title, and interest in and to the property (including improvements thereon) shall revert to the United States and the United States shall have the right of immediate entry thereon.

(d) DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.—The exact acreage and legal description of the property to be conveyed under this section shall be determined by a survey satisfactory to the Secretary. The cost of such survey shall be borne by the city.

(e) ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—The Secretary may require such additional terms and conditions in connection with the conveyance under this section as the Secretary determines appropriate to protect the interests of the United States.

SEC. 128. None of the funds appropriated in this Act, except for North Atlantic Treaty Organization Infrastructure funds, may be used for planning, design, or construction of military facilities or family housing to support the relocation of the 401st Tactical Fighter Wing from Spain to another country.

SEC. 129. Such sums as may be necessary for fiscal year 1991 pay raises for programs funded by this Act shall be absorbed within the levels appropriated in this Act.

SEC. 130. (a) CONVEYANCE.—(1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4), and subject to subsections (c) and (g), the Secretary of the Army shall convey to the University of Utah all right, title, and interest of the United States in and to the land comprising Fort Douglas, Utah, together with improvements thereon.

(2) The Secretary shall except from the land conveyed under paragraph (1) such land, not in excess of 64 acres, and improvements thereon as may be necessary for the Army to continue conducting Army Reserve activities at the Fort Douglas location.

(3) The Secretary shall also except from the land conveyed under paragraph (1) the land at Fort Douglas constituting the Fort Douglas Post Cemetery, consisting of approximately four acres.

(4) In connection with the land retained for Army Reserve activities and the land constituting the Army Post Cemetery, the Secretary shall reserve to the United States in the land conveyed such rights-of-way and other easements as may be necessary for ingress to and egress from the land retained.

(b) CONSIDERATION.—(1) The conveyance under subsection (a) shall be made only on the condition that the State of Utah and the University of Utah waive any entitlements that have not been exercised on behalf of the University of Utah before the date of the enactment of this section and that may be due to the State of Utah or the University of Utah on behalf of the University of Utah under—

(A) section 3 of the Act entitled “An Act to establish the office of Surveyor-General of Utah, and to grant Land for School and University Purposes”, approved February 21, 1855 (10 Stat. 611); and

(B) sections 8 and 12 of the Act entitled “An Act to enable the people of Utah to form a constitution and State government, and to be admitted into the Union on equal footing with the original States”, approved July 16, 1894 (28 Stat. 110).

(2) The waiver referred to in paragraph (1) shall be executed in such manner as the Secretary of the Army, after consultation with the Attorney General of the United States, determines necessary to effectively waive any unexercised entitlements under those laws.

(c) CONDITION.—(1) The conveyance provided for in subsection (a) may be made only on condition that—

(A) the State of Utah agrees to maintain and operate, as provided in paragraph (2), the Army museum located on the land conveyed to the University of Utah pursuant to this section; and

(B) the University of Utah agrees—

Wages.
Government employees.

Public lands.
Utah.
Real property acquisition.

Rights-of-way.

(i) to maintain and operate, as provided in paragraph (2), the Army chapel and other historical buildings located on the land referred to in subparagraph (A); and

(ii) to preserve and maintain, as provided in paragraph (2), the parade grounds that are a part of the land referred to in subparagraph (A).

(2) The Army museum, Army chapel, and other historical buildings referred to in paragraph (1) shall be maintained and operated, and the parade grounds referred to in that paragraph shall be preserved and maintained, in a manner consistent with Federal laws and regulations pertaining to the preservation of historical sites, buildings, and monuments, as specified by the Secretary of the Interior.

Historical preservation. Federal buildings and facilities.

(d) REVERSIONARY RIGHT.—If the University of Utah uses the land conveyed pursuant to subsection (a) for other than educational or research purposes, all right, title, and interest in and to such land shall automatically revert to the United States and the United States shall have the right of immediate entry thereon.

(e) DEADLINE FOR CONVEYANCE.—The conveyance under subsection (a) shall be made not later than one year after the date of the enactment of this section.

(f) JOINT USE OF UTILITY SYSTEMS.—The Secretary may enter into an agreement with the University of Utah under which the Army and the University would—

(1) jointly use the existing utility systems located at Fort Douglas at the time of the conveyance provided for under subsection (a);

(2) equitably share the cost of maintaining, operating, and replacing (as necessary) the systems; and

(3) pay on a pro rata basis for the utilities consumed by each of the parties.

(g) ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—The Secretary may require such additional terms and conditions in connection with the conveyance provided for under subsection (a) as the Secretary considers necessary to protect the interests of the United States.

(h) ADDITIONAL EXCESS LAND.—In the event that any lands constituting Fort Douglas, Utah, that are not conveyed pursuant to subsection (a) are declared excess to the needs of the Army after the date of the conveyance provided for in that subsection, the Secretary shall convey such lands to the University of Utah. Any lands conveyed pursuant to this subsection shall be conveyed subject to a reversionary clause in favor of the United States as provided in subsection (d).

PAYMENT OF CLAIMS BY UNITED STATES NATIONALS AGAINST IRAQ

SEC. 131. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the President is authorized—

50 USC 1701 note.

(1) to vest title in a portion of the property in which transactions have been blocked pursuant to Executive Order 12722 of August 3, 1990, which portion shall be equal to the total amount of obligations owed to United States Government (including the Department of Agriculture and the Commodity Credit Corporation) and United States nationals for which Iraq has suspended repayment; and

(2) to liquidate such property and pay United States creditors the amount of the obligations referred to under paragraph (1).

(b) In the event that property liquidated under subsection (a)(2) is less than the total amount of obligations described in subsection (a)(1), then obligations the repayment of which is guaranteed by the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be given priority in payment of creditors.

ANTITERRORISM ACT OF 1990

Antiterrorism
Act of 1990.
18 USC 2331
note.

SEC. 132. (a) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the “Antiterrorism Act of 1990”.

(b) TERRORISM.—Chapter 113A of title 18, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in section 2331 by striking subsection (d) and redesignating subsection (e) as subsection (d);

(2) by redesignating section 2331 as 2332 and striking the caption for section 2331 and inserting the following:

“§ 2332. Criminal penalties”;

(3) by inserting before section 2332 as redesignated the following:

“§ 2331. Definitions

“As used in this chapter—

“(1) the term ‘international terrorism’ means activities that—

“(A) involve violent acts or acts dangerous to human life that are a violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any State, or that would be a criminal violation if committed within the jurisdiction of the United States or of any State;

“(B) appear to be intended—

“(i) to intimidate or coerce a civilian population;

“(ii) to influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or

“(iii) to affect the conduct of a government by assassination or kidnapping; and

“(C) occur primarily outside the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, or transcend national boundaries in terms of the means by which they are accomplished, the persons they appear intended to intimidate or coerce, or the locale in which their perpetrators operate or seek asylum;

“(2) the term ‘national of the United States’ has the meaning given such term in section 101(a)(22) of the Immigration and Nationality Act;

“(3) the term ‘person’ means any individual or entity capable of holding a legal or beneficial interest in property; and

“(4) the term ‘act of war’ means any act occurring in the course of—

“(A) declared war;

“(B) armed conflict, whether or not war has been declared, between two or more nations; or

“(C) armed conflict between military forces of any origin.”;

(4) by adding immediately after section 2332 as redesignated the following new sections:

“§ 2333. Civil remedies

“(a) ACTION AND JURISDICTION.—Any national of the United States injured in his person, property, or business by reason of an act of international terrorism, or his estate, survivors, or heirs, may sue therefor in any appropriate district court of the United States and shall recover threefold the damages he sustains and the cost of the suit, including attorney’s fees.

“(b) ESTOPPED UNDER UNITED STATES LAW.—A final judgment or decree rendered in favor of the United States in any criminal proceeding under section 1116, 1201, 1203, or 2332 of this title or section 1472 (i), (k), (l), (n), or (r) of title 49 App. shall estop the defendant from denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense in any subsequent civil proceeding under this section.

“(c) ESTOPPED UNDER FOREIGN LAW.—A final judgment or decree rendered in favor of any foreign state in any criminal proceeding shall, to the extent that such judgment or decree may be accorded full faith and credit under the law of the United States, estop the defendant from denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense in any subsequent civil proceeding under this section.

“§ 2334. Jurisdiction and venue

“(a) GENERAL VENUE.—Any civil action under section 2333 of this title against any person may be instituted in the district court of the United States for any district where any plaintiff resides or where any defendant resides or is served, or has an agent. Process in such a civil action may be served in any district where the defendant resides, is found, or has an agent.

“(b) SPECIAL MARITIME OR TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION.—If the actions giving rise to the claim occurred within the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States, as defined in section 7 of this title, then any civil action under section 2333 of this title against any person may be instituted in the district court of the United States for any district in which any plaintiff resides or the defendant resides, is served, or has an agent.

“(c) SERVICE ON WITNESSES.—A witness in a civil action brought under section 2333 of this title may be served in any district where the witness resides, is found, or has an agent.

“(d) CONVENIENCE OF THE FORUM.—The district court shall not dismiss any action brought under section 2333 of this title on the grounds of the inconvenience or inappropriateness of the forum chosen, unless—

“(1) the action may be maintained in a foreign court that has jurisdiction over the subject matter and over all the defendants;

“(2) that foreign court is significantly more convenient and appropriate; and

“(3) that foreign court offers a remedy which is substantially the same as the one available in the courts of the United States.

“§ 2335. Limitation of actions

“(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subsection (b), a suit for recovery of damages under section 2333 of this title shall not be maintained unless commenced within 3 years from the date the cause of action accrued.

“(b) CALCULATION OF PERIOD.—The time of the absence of the defendant from the United States or from any jurisdiction in which the same or a similar action arising from the same facts may be maintained by the plaintiff, or any concealment of his whereabouts, shall not be reckoned within this period of limitation.

“§ 2336. Other limitations

“No action shall be maintained under section 2333 of this title for injury or loss by reason of an act of war.

“§ 2337. Suits against government officials

“No action shall be maintained under section 2333 of this title against—

“(1) the United States, an agency of the United States, or an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof acting within his official capacity or under color of legal authority; or
