Forfeiture of benefits.
72 Stat. 1240.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 3503 of title 38, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

72 Stat. 1240.

"(d) After the date of enactment of this subsection, no forfeiture of benefits may be imposed under this section or section 3504 of this title upon any individual who was a resident of, or domiciled in, a State at the time the act or acts occurred on account of which benefits would, but for this subsection, be forfeited unless such individual ceases to be a resident of, or domiciled in, a State before the expiration of the period during which criminal prosecution could be instituted. This subsection shall not apply with respect to (a), any forfeiture occurring before the date of enactment of this subsection, or (b) an act or acts which occurred in the Philippine Islands prior to July 4, 1946.

"(e) No apportionment award under subsection (b) of this section shall be made in any case after the date of enactment of this subsection."

SEC. 2. Section 3504 of title 38, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) In the case of any forfeiture under this section there shall be no authority after the date of enactment of this subsection (1) to make an apportionment award pursuant to subsection (b) or (2) to make an award to any person of gratuitous benefits based on any period of military, naval, or air service commencing before the date of commission of the offense."

SEC. 3. (a) Chapter 61 of title 38, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“§ 3505. Forfeiture for subversive activities

“(a) Any individual who is convicted after the date of enactment of this section of any offense listed in subsection (b) of this section shall, from and after the date of commission of such offense, have no right to gratuitous benefits under laws administered by the Veterans' Administration based on periods of military, naval, or air service commencing before the date of the commission of such offense and no other person shall be entitled to such benefits on account of such individual. After receipt of notice of the return of an indictment for such an offense the Veterans' Administration shall suspend payment of such gratuitous benefits pending disposition of the criminal proceedings. If any individual whose right to benefits has been terminated pursuant to this section is granted a pardon of the offense by the President of the United States, the right to such benefits shall be restored as of the date of such pardon.

“(b) The offenses referred to in subsection (a) of this section are those offenses for which punishment is prescribed (1) in the following provisions of title 18, United States Code: sections 792, 793, 794, 798, 2381, 2382, 2383, 2384, 2385, 2387, 2388, 2389, 2390, and chapter 105; (2) in the Uniform Code of Military Justice, articles 94, 104, and 106; (3) in the following sections of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954: sections 222, 223, 224, 225, and 226; and (4) in the following sections of the Internal Security Act of 1950: sections 4, 112, and 113.

“(c) The Attorney General shall notify the Administrator in each case in which an individual is indicted or convicted of an offense listed in clauses (1), (3), or (4) of subsection (b) of this section. The Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of the Treasury, as may be appropriate, shall notify the Administrator in each case in which an individual is convicted of an offense listed in clause (2) of subsection (b) of this section.”

(b) The table of sections for such chapter 61 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

“3505. Forfeiture for subversive activities.”
