AN ACT

October 23, 1962
[H. R. 10708]

To amend section 203 of the Rural Electrification Act of 1936, as amended, with respect to communication service for the transmission of voice, sounds, signals, pictures, writing, or signs of all kinds through the use of electricity.

Rural Electrification Act of 1936, amendment.
63 Stat. 949.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 203 of the Rural Electrification Act of 1936, as amended (7 U.S.C. 924), is amended by striking out subsection (a) thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Telephone service.”

“ (a) As used in this title, the term ‘telephone service’ shall be deemed to mean any communication service for the transmission of voice, sounds, signals, pictures, writing, or signs of all kinds through the use of electricity between the transmitting and receiving apparatus, and shall include all telephone lines, facilities, or systems used in the rendition of such service; but shall not be deemed to mean message telegram service or community antenna television system services or facilities other than those intended exclusively for educational purposes, or radio broadcasting services or facilities within the meaning of section 3(o) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.”

48 Stat. 1066.
47 USC 153.
