

Public Law 89-275

AN ACT

October 20, 1965

[H. R. 1805]

To amend section 5899 of title 10, United States Code, to provide permanent authority under which Naval Reserve officers in the grade of captain shall be eligible for consideration for promotion when their running mates are eligible for consideration for promotion.

Armed Forces.
Naval and
Marine Corps
Reserve, promotion authority.
72 Stat. 1503;
74 Stat. 274.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 5899 (a) of title 10, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking out “However, until July 1, 1961, an officer in the grade of captain is eligible for consideration for promotion when his running mate is eligible for consideration for promotion.”; and

(2) by adding the following:

“However, an officer in the grade of captain is eligible for consideration for promotion when his running mate is eligible for consideration for promotion. When more than one officer in the grade of captain is to be selected for promotion from among line officers or from among officers in any one staff corps, at least one-half of the officers selected in the category concerned must be officers who are in the promotion zone or senior to such officers.”

SEC. 2. Section 5899 (b) of title 10, United States Code, is amended by adding the following:

“However, an officer in the grade of colonel is eligible for consideration for promotion when his running mate is eligible for consideration for promotion. When more than one officer in the grade of colonel is to be selected for promotion, at least one-half of the officers selected must be officers who are in the promotion zone or senior to such officers.”

Effective date.

SEC. 3. The last sentence of section 5899 (a) and the last sentence of section 5899 (b) of title 10, United States Code, added by this Act become effective July 1, 1967.

Approved October 20, 1965.
