

“§ 1087. Programing facilities for certain members, former members, and their dependents in construction projects of the uniformed services

“Space for inpatient and outpatient care may be programed in facilities of the uniformed services for persons covered by sections 1074(b) and 1076(b) of this title. The amount of space so programed shall be limited to that amount determined by the Secretary concerned to be necessary to support teaching and training requirements in uniformed services facilities, except that space may be programed in areas having a large concentration of retired members and their dependents where there is also a projected critical shortage of community facilities.”

(8) Section 1082 is amended by inserting “and 1086” immediately after “1081” and by amending the catchline to read as follows:

“§ 1082. Contracts for health care: advisory committees”.

(9) The analysis is amended by striking out the following items:

“1071. Purpose of sections 1071–1085 of this title.”

“1073. Administration of sections 1071–1085 of this title.”

“1077. Medical and dental care for dependents: specific inclusions and exclusions.”

“1082. Contracts for medical care for spouses and children: advisory committees.”
and inserting the following items:

“1071. Purpose of sections 1071–1087 of this title.”

“1073. Administration of sections 1071–1087 of this title.”

“1077. Medical care for dependents: authorized care in facilities of uniformed services.”

“1082. Contracts for health care: advisory committees.”

“1086. Contracts for health care for certain members, former members, and their dependents.”

“1087. Programing facilities for certain members, former members, and their dependents in construction projects of the uniformed services.”

Effective dates.

SEC. 3. The amendments made by this Act shall become effective January 1, 1967, except that those amendments relating to outpatient care in civilian facilities for spouses and children of members of the uniformed services who are on active duty for a period of more than 30 days shall become effective on October 1, 1966.

Approved September 30, 1966.

AN ACT

To authorize the Secretary of the Interior to study the feasibility and desirability of a Connecticut River National Recreation Area, in the States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont, and New Hampshire, and for other purposes.

October 3, 1966
[S. 3510]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in order to consider preserving the Connecticut River area and appropriate segments of adjoining land in their natural condition for public outdoor recreation, and preserving the priceless natural beauty and historic heritage of the river valley, the Secretary of the Interior shall study, investigate, and formulate recommendations on the feasibility and desirability of establishing all or parts of the Connecticut River Valley from its source to its mouth, in the States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont, and New Hampshire, as a Connecticut River National Recreation Area. The Secretary shall consult with other interested Federal agencies, and the State and local bodies and officials involved, and shall coordinate his study with applicable highway plans and other planning activities relating to the region. In conducting the study, the Secretary shall hold public hearings within any State involved, upon the request of the Governor thereof, for the purpose of receiving views and recommendations on the establishment of a national recreation area.
