AN ACT

To establish the Plymouth-Provincetown Celebration Commission.

October 21, 1970
[S. 2916]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in recognition of the three hundred and fiftieth anniversary, in 1970, of the landing of the Pilgrims at Provincetown and Plymouth, which led to permanent settlements whose influence on our history, culture, law, and commerce extends through the present day, there is hereby established the Plymouth-Provincetown Celebration Commission (hereafter referred to as the "Commission"), for the purpose of developing suitable plans for such anniversary and conducting celebrations at appropriate times throughout the period beginning September 1, 1970, and ending November 30, 1971.

Plymouth-Provincetown Celebration Commission. Establishment.

SEC. 2. (a) The Commission shall be composed of thirteen members as follows:

Membership.

(1) four Members of the Senate, two from each of the two major political parties, to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate;

(2) four Members of the House of Representatives, two from each of the two major political parties, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and

(3) five members to be appointed by the President.

(b) The President shall, at the time of appointment, designate one of the members appointed by him to serve as Chairman.

(c) The members of the Commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred by them in carrying out the duties of the Commission.

Travel expenses, etc.

(d) Within ninety days after the termination of such celebration, the Commission shall furnish a report of its activities, including an accounting of funds received and expended, to the Congress. Upon submission of such report to the Congress, the Commission shall terminate.

Report to Congress.

Termination.

SEC. 3. In order to carry out the purposes of this Act, the Commission is authorized—

(1) to appoint and fix the compensation of such personnel as may be necessary, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, and without regard to the provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates;
